

QEII Foundation: Did You Know?

Submitted by Glenda Farnden of the QEII Hospital Foundation

The holiday season combined with the new year marks the time for our fourth annual mail appeal.

This painting done by Suzanne Sandboe will go to the lucky winner of the annual mail appeal draw.

features a stunning painting by our very own Peace Country artist, Suzanne Sandboe. Suzanne's work is renowned in the Peace area and the painting is on display at the QEII Hospital Foundation office.

If anyone would like to participate and have a chance to win this exquisite work of art, all it takes is a donation made to the QEII Hospital Foundation and anyone is eligible for the draw.

The draw will take place at the foundation office on Feb. 14, 2005 and will be presented by Suzanne Sandboe herself. For more information, please contact the foundation office at 538-7583.

The QEII Hospital Foundation has been very fortunate to have had local artists; Peter Von Tiesenhausen and Jim Stokes offer original works of art as an inspiration and encouragement for philanthropy.

This year's annual mail appeal fea-

BESTS and brightest.
academic talent search

High achieving 4th, 5th and 6th grade students are invited to participate in the BESTS academic talent search taking place in Grande Prairie on March 19, 2005.

BESTS uses standardized, above-level tests in English, Mathematics, Reading and Science Reasoning to discover students who need further educational challenge to fully realize their potential. Appropriate candidates are those students who scored in the top 5% on the grade 3 provincial examinations, or other standardized test.